

"Capella Lodge is Lord Howe's premium boutique accommodation. The lodge commands spectacular ocean, lagoon and mountain views and is favoured by discerning guests seeking a more civilised, stylish and sophisticated escape."

Capella Lodge
PO Box 59
Lord Howe Island NSW 2898
Australia
P 61 2 6563 2008
F 61 2 6563 2180
E office@lordhowe.com
www.lordhowe.com

LIVING AND WORKING AT CAPELLA LODGE, LORD HOWE ISLAND

Location

Situated in the South Pacific Ocean, 900km north-east of Sydney, New South Wales. Lord Howe Island is a small, breathtakingly beautiful island, just 11km long and 2.8km at its widest point. Included on the UNESCO World Heritage List in 1982, the Island is bordered by a reef-fringed lagoon, rolling surf, and the world's southern most coral reef.

Lord Howe Island has been settled for 150 years but today remains largely unspoilt. About 75 per cent of the island and its islets are preserved as permanent national / marine parks.

Climate

The subtropical maritime climate produces warm summers and mild winters. Daytime temperatures range from about 25-28°C in summer and 18-22°C in winter. Generally, conditions are appropriate for swimming between September and May. Walking, hiking and many other activities are enjoyed year-round. The climate is often likened to perpetual spring.

Getting there

Lord Howe Island is a 2 hour flight from either Sydney or Brisbane with Qantaslink who operate a 32 seat Boeing Dash 8 aircraft to the Island. A 14kg luggage limit per person applies on all Lord Howe Island flights. A fortnightly supply vessel operated by Lord Howe Island sea freight transports all operating supplies from Yamba, NSW, and staff are welcome to transport personal belongings to the Island on this vessel at their own cost. The most economical way to get belongings and supplies to the Island is via the government subsidised Australia Post service. Simply address items attention to yourself c/o Capella Lodge PO Box 59 Lord Howe Island, NSW 2898. If you have urgent items then Express Post will ensure they come via the plane rather than the ship.

Market Profile

Capella's target market is predominantly discerning guests seeking an active boutique island experience. Many family groups visit the Lodge throughout school holiday periods and there is a high number of return guests to the Lodge each year.

Tariffs at the Lodge range from $590 to $990 per person twin share and include both breakfast and dinner, all non alcoholic drinks, dinner wines and bicycles.

The peak season on the Island is from October to May and whilst some of the other accommodation houses choose to close throughout the cooler months Capella Lodge remains open year round.

Working at Capella

The team at Capella is small and unique. Whilst job descriptions are provided to individuals, it is a team effort that makes the Lodge operate effectively. There is good opportunity to work in all areas of the operation. The most common roles are within the areas of Food and Beverage, Housekeeping, Maintenance/Grounds and Administration. The petite Capella Spa also provides opportunities for Spa Therapists.

Living at Capella

Furnished single accommodation is provided to all staff on site at the Lodge. The accommodation which includes three meals a day is valued currently at $350 per week.

Mobile phones do not work on Lord Howe Island however there is a phone in the staff room (you will need a phone card), and pay phones on the Island.

Internet access is available in our staff room (free of charge) and at the Lord Howe Island Visitor Centre through its site kiosk.

If you need to forward your mail, then simply address to Capella Lodge PO Box 59, Lord Howe Island NSW 2898.

Eating and Drinking

Staff meals are provided in the staff room. Breakfast is self serve with toast, cereal, coffee and tea, and occasional hot items. A light lunch is served in the staff room. (12.00pm daily). Dinner is a more substantial meal with the opportunity for BBQ nights also.(5.30pm daily) Staff are welcome to eat at the Capella Lodge Restaurant with the permission of the Lodge Managers. (Charges apply) There are several other restaurants and cafes on the Island as well as two general stores for supplies. Whilst there is no "Pub" as such the Lord Howe Island Bowling Club is the place for a night out on the Island.

Lord Howe Island - Activities

There are fantastic activity options on Lord Howe Island. There are staff mountain bikes at the Lodge and you are also welcome to bring your own. Many of our staff are keen surfers, anglers, scuba divers or walkers.

Island activities include: surfing, swimming, scuba diving, snorkelling, kayaking, world class sport fishing, bird watching, bush walking, mountain climbing, hand feeding fish, environmental tours, cycling, golf, tennis, bowls, scenic flights, boat cruises, glass bottom boat excursion, bus tours. And most operators will give you a staff discount.

A TV and VCR/DVD are located in the staff room with a library of movies to watch (there is also a DVD and Video rental system on the Island).

Lord Howe Island – Business

As a small community many services are provided on the Island. There are branches of the Commonwealth and Westpac banks, a Post office, Doctor, small hospital, Visitor centre, Primary school and Anglican, Catholic and Seventh Day Adventist churches. Note that a Dentist only visits on rotation so it's advisable to get a full check up and any procedures completed prior to your arrival.

Two general stores supply all the essentials you could possibly want (at a little bit more than the mainland)

There are EFTPOS facilities on the island but no ATM's. We suggest that you are registered for Internet Banking as this makes it easier for you to pay any bills and transfer funds.

Time Out

QantasLink provides discounted staff flights from the Island to Sydney and Brisbane that can be booked at their office on Lord Howe. At times they will offer seasonal specials also. It is also worth checking for the latest deals on line at www.qantas.com.au. With the appropriate notice and dependant on occupancy it is usually possible to arrange a few days off to attend special occasions or events.